

RICHTER COCKTAILS

Diesel 2 oz liquor | 10

Richter Fashioned

Classic Old Fashioned cocktail made behind the very old fashioned Max' Bessler Bar.

Max' Mule

Vodka, lime, house-made ginger beer.

Tom Collins

Gin, lemon, sugar, soda. Great summer refresher.

Dial M, for Martini

Richter's version of the perfect martini. We use a blend of clear sweet and dry vermouths for a perfectly balanced martini.

Tequila Honeysuckle

The honeysuckle, a little-known classic, is cross between a Bee's Knees and a Classic Daiquiri. Twisted a little further with a good clean tequila.

1920 Cocktail

A variation of a perfect rye Manhattan. Perfect for a 1920's building.

All Dressed Up

Bourbon, vanilla liqueur, and All Spice. The 3 B's: Big, Bold, Boozy.

The Great Bet

American Whiskey, vanilla liqueur, strawberry, black pepper. Tangy mix of sweet and savory.

For Heaven's Sake

Orange juice, lemon juice, maple syrup, vanilla. How many times can we say refreshing on one menu? Here's one more. This drink is super refreshing.

A Trip to the Moon

Max' Mule without the vodka. At first we tried high tech science to extract the alcohol from the cocktail. All efforts met with failure. Then someone walked by and suggested that we just don't put it into the cocktail in the first place. BAM!

Regular 1.5 oz liquor | 10

French 75

Classy, elegant, bubbly, refreshing.

Broken Blossoms

Seven Chances

Need a little "Tiki" in your life? Here's one with a Texas flair. Rum, chili liqueur, and lots of fruit juice.

The Lodger: A Story of the London Fog

Sweet, sour, bitter all in one glass. Try it, you'll like it.

Think deconstructed white Russian.
